

Pilates Instructor (Mat & Reformer)

About Us

Silverback Studios delivers High Quality Pilates for Everyday People.

We're known for our strong sense of community, welcoming environment, and commitment to quality. Our members value the consistency of our classes, the care shown by our team, and the attention we give to helping people move well.

We are equally committed to our instructors. We believe great teaching is built through support, development, professionalism and genuine connection.

About the Role

We're looking for a Pilates Instructor with a strong foundation teaching small group Mat and Reformer classes and, who is keen to continue developing within a supportive, high-standard studio.

You'll play an important role in delivering engaging, well-planned classes that reflect 'The Silverback Way', while contributing positively to our team culture.

What We're Looking For

Experience and capability

- Must be available for Saturday and/or Sunday teaching
- Minimum of 12 months experience teaching IRL Mat & Reformer Pilates
- Comprehensive certification is advantageous, but not essential
- Strong understanding of movement principles, technique and a hands on approach
- Ability to adapt for a wide range of bodies, abilities and goals

Member experience

- You genuinely care about people, their experience, and forming a true connection
- You create a class environment that feels welcoming, inclusive and supportive

Professionalism

- You are reliable, punctual, consistent and professional at all times
- You communicate clearly and confidently
- You bring care, maturity and attention to detail in your class programming, cueing and member interactions

Team fit

- You are a true team player and willing to cover when your peers need you
- You are coachable and open to feedback, valuing continuous improvement
- You want to be part of a studio that is committed to high standards

Why Join Silverback Studios

At Silverback, we are committed to investing in our instructors through ongoing training, mentoring and development opportunities, so you can continue to build confidence and capability in your career.

We need to talk if you're looking for:

- Connection and belonging
- Consistency and quality
- Growth and development
- A welcoming, inclusive and supportive environment
- A community focus where people are seen and heard
- A supportive, collaborative team
- Access to ongoing education and mentoring
- Contributing to delivering exceptional member experiences

To Apply

- Please send through your resume including your qualifications, experience and availability.

If you're passionate about Pilates, committed to your craft, and looking for a studio that genuinely values both members and instructors, we'd love to hear from you.
